

Sirs:

The major broadcast networks just took in a record amount of ad dollars at the upfronts, somewhere north of 9 billion dollars. The end is not near, Mr. Powell, for free tv. I urge the FCC to keep the current anti-trust restrictions in place.